KENTUCKY IN REBELLION.

Rosecrans, Dec. 19, —

The Bridge of Gen. Robinson, of Kentucky, (a commander Kentucky to appear and support the Union) Resolution passed unanimously, and every man in the State, it is said, is in favor of the Union.

CONFEDERATE STATES SENATOR.

Richmond, Jan. 12.

The election of Confederate States Senator postponed until to-morrow. Judge Allen, Wm. E. Jones and Chas. W. Russell were nominated in the House of Delegates.

We will perform a simple duty when we acknowledge our indebtedness to the Obliging Superintendent of the Telegraphic Office in this city, W. E. Dudley, Esq. If the business in all the offices was as well attended to as at this point, we should have much more system, accuracy and regularity in the press dispatches.

If the Press Association is to continue and we are to have the dispatches at all, we ought to have them promptly, for the tax upon the press is heavy and it should reap the benefit of the outlay.

NARROW ESCAPE.—We learn that Mr. Elliot, residing in the Eastern part of the city, in a fit of delirium brought on by fever, jumped into a well some 40 or 50 feet deep on Monday night. She remained there some hours, and was not discovered until some one in attending to draw water discovered her. Strange to say, she was taken up with no other injury than a bruised or sprained ankle, and is doing well.

We adopt this means of answering a number of enquiries we have received about the Progress Weekly, Semi-Weekly and Tri-Weekly. We publish nothing but a Daily, and cannot enter any other than daily subscribers on our mail books. We print two edition a day—the morning edition is sent to Eastern and Northern subscribers, and the evening to Western and Southern.

FROM THE BORDER.—There was no news by the Fredericksburg train last night. No change has been made in the position of affairs to that vicinity.

The Central train of yesterday evening brought to this city another invoice of thirty (two Yankee) prisoners, captured last week by the Wade Hoose cavalry in Hardy county.

Passengers by the same train bring a report that our forces at Wardsboro, Va., under the command of Gen. Jones, had been attacked by the enemy and routed. The rumor was a vague one, however, and we think needs confirmation.

PARTICULARS OF THE YANKEE RAID INTO EAST TENNESSEE.

The Jonesboro Tennessee Express, of the 31, has the following details of the bridge burning on the East Tennessee and Va. Railroad:

On Monday night last information was received, by couriers, at various points on the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad, that a large force of Federal cavalry, supposed to number from 4,000 to 6,000, had passed through Mocasin Gap en route for Bristol. About 2 o'clock, Tuesday morning, the telegraph operator at this place announced that he had no circuit east—which led to the belief that the Yankees had intersected the line. In the evening about 3 o'clock, Mr. Moore, Road Master, the telegraph operator, Mr. Nelson, and Capt. W. L. Boddie, started from this place up the road on the engine "Bristol," to see what the matter was. We learn from Mr. Nelson, that they proceeded on up the road, (taking Col. Love, of the 62d N. C. Regiment on board at Johnson's Depot,) until they got about half way between the two bridges, (the first spanning the Watauga river at Carter's Depot, and the other the Holston river at Zollicoffer,) where they discovered the Federal cavalry. Whereupon they reversed the engine and started back, but they discovered immediately that they were blockaded and surrounded, when Col. Love surrendered the engine and party. The Yankees placed one of their party, a Captain McNish, (who, by the way, used to run the Bristol over this road,) on the engine, and brought it and the party back to Carter's Depot. There they set fire to the bridge, and after it fell in, they turned the engine loose and run it into the river, where it remains bottom upward—a perfect wreck.

The arms captured from our large force first broken up, then placed into the engine before it was run into the river.

THE TELEGRAPH REPORTS IN THE NEWBERN DISTRICT.

The Yankees held an election in the 2d Congressional district on the 1st inst. for a member of Congress. Fisher, Wilds and Pigott were candidates. Pigott (Secession) is to be elected.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer writing from Newbern says:

The impression generally prevails here that Congress will refuse to recognize the validity of the elections in consequence of the reception of many disloyal votes, which were received in accordance with the express instructions of the Military Governors.

The Union and free labor men of Eastern North Carolina are to hold an indignation meeting to protest against the recognition, and appoint an attorney to go to Washington city to argue said dispatch.—Preliminary to the immediate removal of Gov. Stanley will also be discussed.

Nearly three hundred men of the Marine Artillery are stationed in various jails and forts in this Department, on bread and water, for insubordination and mutiny. The remainder of this regiment are wandering about the streets in a condition of entire destitution, having no rations, and not allowed to go North. They assert that they have never received any pay and they understand now that the service no longer entitles them, and that they have never belonged to either the army or navy.

SEMI-OFFICIAL VIEW OF MEDIATION.—The Washington Republican, generally recognized as an Administration organ, thus expresses itself concerning mediation:

We are confident that we are on the eve of some developments respecting foreign mediation. There are many straws which indicate how the wind is soon to blow.

The Richmond Dispatch said, some days since, that after the battle of Antietam propositions of peace ought to have been made; that both parties could then have made proposals of this nature with perfect propriety.

The New York Tribune has a well considered article upon the subject of foreign mediation, proposing the Swiss Cantons as the mediatory power. It does not object to the French Government making an effort in this direction but is not so well satisfied with England. Our people might be satisfied with the interference or mediation of the Swiss Cantons, or even of France or most certainly of Russia, but never with perfidious England if we can help it.

Other indications are manifest that something in the shape of intervention or mediation is soon to take place. All this may be premature and unfounded; still we are doubtless approaching a crisis in our national affairs.

We may not be pleased with the complexion our public affairs are assuming; still we know the utter folly of resisting the inexorable logic of events. If we cannot, or have not, put down the rebellion, we cannot expect nations which suffer much by our quarrel to look on as disinterested spectators forever.

REID. GEN. JAMES E. RAINS.—Who fell at the battle of Murfreesboro', was a native Tennesseean, reared and educated in Nashville. When this war began he was, and had been for some years, Commonwealth's Attorney in that city. Prior to this he was an Editor of the Republican Banner, in which capacity he was the successor of Gen. Zollicoffer. When the war began he was elected Captain, and subsequently, unanimously chosen Colonel of the 11th Tennessee Regiment, afterwards attached to the Brigade of General Zollicoffer. He led his Regiment in the battles at Wild Cat and Barboursville.

Subsequently he was ordered to Cumberland Gap, a fortress which he held against many assaults of the Federal forces. He was here made a Brigadier and served through the Kentucky campaign under the immediate command of Division General Stevenson of Lieut. Gen. Smith's Corps. He has fallen at Murfreesboro' in the immediate vicinity of the home of his childhood, which he sought to reclaim from those who would enslave the South.

Gen Rains was not more than 38 years of age.—Knoxville Register.

HALLECK AND STANTON IN THE RING.—The Richmond Enquirer says:—"We learn from undoubted authority that a regular set-to between the Secretary of War and the General-in-chief of the United forces took place at the War Department in Washington in regular Heenan and Sayers style.

The General-in-chief having made an offensive demonstration towards the Secretary, that redoubtable functionary launched an full-stand, well aimed at the head of the General-in-chief, who, ducking and dodging, escaped the blow, and immediately closed in upon the Secretary. Here ended the first round—time less than one minute. The General-in-Chief, having quickly closed in upon the Secretary and cut off retreat by a skillful manœuvre at his shirt collar, immediately began gouging at the eyes of the War Department, and was about thrusting in a finger to its full length when Lincoln cried foul and threw down the sponge, which was immediately applied to quenching the claret flow from the nose of the Secretary of War.

DONATIONS FOR THE SOLDIERS.—Many persons in the State are ready to contribute what they can spare in clothing, wool, blankets, &c., for the benefit of the soldiers of North Carolina, provided they can be made certain that the articles sent will reach their destination. We have taken some pains to ascertain how this can be done, and the following is the result of our inquiries. These arrangements may be relied upon:

1. Governor Vance has ordered the Captain of every militia district in the State to call upon each family in their several districts, to purchase or collect what they may be willing to give to the North-Carolina soldiers, blankets, jeans, flannels, leather, shoes, socks, carpets and clothes ready made, to be delivered by the Colonel of the regiment to the Quartermaster in Raleigh, to be forwarded by him to the proper regiment or company.

2. Besides this, the people of one or more Captain's districts, if their donations are sufficiently large to justify it, may select a gentleman whom they may prefer to carry on their donations to the regiment or company, and the State will forward the transportation and pay the necessary expenses of the agent.

3. All articles donated should be carefully put up in packages, bags, boxes or barrels, and they should be legibly directed to the soldier or company for whom they are intended, naming the company and regiment, and if possible the brigade.

4. Persons who wish to send articles to any soldier or company, but who do not find it convenient to deliver it to the Captain of their district, or to a special Agent, by directing it carefully as above, may deliver it to the nearest Railroad Agent, directed to the care of Captain C. W. Garrett, Quartermaster at Raleigh, N. C., and it will be promptly forwarded.

5. All articles intended for sick or wounded soldiers, or for hospitals, must be carefully directed, and sent to the care of Surgeon General Warren, Raleigh, N. C.

SPECIAL ORDERS, }
No. 13. }

I. COMMANDING OFFICERS OF MILITIA REGIments are required to assemble all persons subject to the provisions of the act entitled "an act to amend an act entitled an act to provide further for the public defence," approved September 26, 1862, and enroll the same.

II. An Enrolling Officer and an Examining Board will be appointed for each Congressional District, who will give due notice to the Commanding Officers of Regiments to bring the Conscripts to the County Seats of their respective Counties for examination. Immediately upon examination, the said Commanding Officers of Regiments will conduct all Conscripts not having received certificate of exemption to the Camp of Instruction, near Raleigh.

III. All persons who may desire to volunteer must do so before the 20th of December, the day set apart for enrollment, and must join companies which were in the service of the Confederate States on the 16th of April, 1862.

IV. Applications for exemption must, in all cases, be made to the Enrolling Officer of the District; duplicate copies of said application being made in writing, duly sworn to before an acting Justice of the Peace, and bearing the certificate of the Clerk of the Court, given under the County Seal and sent through the Colonel of the Regiment. An appeal may be taken from the decision of the Enrolling Officer to the Commandant of Conscripts.

V. All Conscripts engaged on Government works will be enrolled and returned to their said work.

In issuing the above orders for the enrollment of Conscripts between the ages of 18 and 45, the Commandant avails himself of the opportunity to thank the State Officers for their untiring and laborious efforts in the discharge of their duties and the efficient and ready assistance rendered to him in their official capacity heretofore.

The importance and absolute necessity of renewed energy and prompt action in executing these orders faithfully, is fully expressed in His Excellency Governor Vance's General Order, No. 10.

The efficiency of the army and the safety of our country depends, in a great measure, upon their faithful discharge of these duties.

By order of Colonel PETER MALLETT, Commandant of Conscripts in N. C.

Dec 11 E. MANN, Adj't.

I. THE PRESIDENT OF THE CONFEDERATE States having deemed it necessary to call into service, under the provisions of the recent act of Congress, all persons liable to military duty between the ages of 18 and 40 years, the Commanding Officers of the Militia will call out their respective Regiments and enroll and conduct to the Camp of Instruction all persons liable to military duty under this law, at such times as Colonel Peter Mallett, Chief Enrolling Officer for the State, may direct.

II. The enemy are pressing upon us in great numbers, with the intention to overwhelm us by a winter campaign. Our danger now comes from the South side of James river, and as the scene of war approaches nearer to our borders, it becomes North Carolinians to rush even more promptly than before to the defence of our own territory. If we can drive him back once more, as we have so often done, there is every reason to hope that his strength will be effectually broken. The various officers entrusted with the execution of this order are again commanded to use all diligence in arresting deserters and absentees without leave from the army, and all good citizens who prize liberty and independence, are earnestly invoked to assist in hurrying up all such to their regiments. The brave and patriotic soldier will not over-stay his furlough unless providentially hindered. The coward alone will shirk (at home) whilst his braver comrades endure the heat and

ADJ'T & INSPECTOR GENERAL'S OFFICE,

RICHMOND, Nov. 27, 1862.

GENERAL ORDERS, }
No. 96. }

Commandants of conscripts will cause the following order to be published for at least seven times in a sufficient number of newspapers in each State of the Confederacy to ensure its reaching every part of the country.

I. All commissioned officers and enlisted men who are now absent from their commands from any other cause than actual disability, or duty under orders from the Secretary of War, or from their department commanders will return to their commands without delay.

II. Commissioned officers failing to comply with the provisions of the foregoing paragraph within a reasonable length of time, in no case to exceed twenty days after the publication of this order, shall be dropped from the rolls of the army in disgrace, and their names will be furnished to the commandant of conscripts for enlistment in the ranks.

III. All enlisted men who shall fail to comply with the provisions of paragraph I., of this order, within a reasonable length of time, shall be considered as deserters, and treated accordingly, their names to be furnished to the commandant of conscripts, to their State, for publication, or such other action as may be deemed most effectual.

IV. In order to ensure the efficient co-operation of all concerned to carry this order into immediate effect, Department Commanders are directed to require from the commanding officer of each separate command in their Departments a prompt report of the names of all commissioned officers and enlisted men now absent from their commands. These reports must state in each case the cause of absence, and any regimental, battalion or company commander who shall neglect to furnish such a report, or who shall knowingly be guilty of concealing any case of unauthorized absence, shall, on conviction thereof, be summarily dismissed.

V. Under the provisions of the 2d clause of paragraph I. of General Orders No. 82 commissioned officers and privates who are incapable of bearing arms in consequence of wounds received in battle, but who are otherwise fit for service, are required, if not otherwise assigned to report to the nearest commandant of conscripts in their respective States who will, if they are fitted for such duty, assign them to the collection of stragglers and the enforcement of the provisions of this order, with full power to call upon the nearest military authority for such assistance as may be necessary thereto.

VI. Officers of the Quartermaster's Department, charged with payment of troops are hereby directed not to pay any commissioned officer, non-commissioned officer or private who does not furnish satisfactory evidence that he is not liable to the penalties described in the foregoing order. Any disbursing officer who shall make payment in violation of this order shall be liable on his bond for the amount of such payment.
